PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS
To Deep Fry: Heat 5cm (2 1/2') oil in a large pan or wok, until very hot (200C). To test: drop a small piece of poppadom in the oil, if it starts bubbling and expands immediately the oil is hot enough. Deep fry one or two poppadoms at a time, holding under the oil with a fish slice. Quickly turn the poppadom over, shaking off any excess oil. The poppadoms are ready when they are well expanded and pale in colour. For best results drain upright on kitchen paper. The poppadoms will become crisp on cooling. Alternatively Poppadoms can be cooked in commercial deep-fat fryers. To Microwave: Lightly smear each poppadom evenly with oil. Microwave each poppadom on HIGH for 40* seconds. (*NOTE: cooking times will vary – these instructions are based on a 200W microwave oven).
